

Sharing Enough

Editor's Note: This article, published on the ELCA website, reminds us of the abundance and blessings we have as Christians—a timely message in the midst of messages of scarcity.

“I have learned to be content with whatever I have. I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me.”

Philippians 4:11b-13

What does “contentment” feel like? This is a difficult question in our current culture. When surveys have asked “How much is enough?” responses have consistently been “Twenty percent more than I have now.” If that is true, how do we break the endless circle that this leads us toward—it is always “twenty percent more.” We are told over and over every day—“You don’t have enough...What you have is fragile and could be gone at any moment...You have to go get more!” These messages come from a world focused on scarcity.

In this setting how do we understand our relationship with God? God is creator—we are God’s creatures.

How do we live in relationship with our creator? Martin Luther reminds us in his explanation of the First Article of the Apostles’ Creed “that God has created me and all that exists...God daily and abundantly provides...all the necessities and nourishment for this body and life...out of pure, fatherly, and divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness of mine at all!” It is in this relationship that we recognize that God has abundantly provided us with all that we need.

If we focus on the scarcity, we never have enough. When we focus on God’s abundant blessings, there is more than we can ever imagine.

Living in that abundance we give of the blessings we have received. If we focus on the scarcity, we never have enough. When we focus on God’s abundant blessings, there is more than we can ever imagine. Recognizing God’s abundant blessings we experience Paul’s message to the Philippians in our own lives. We can be content with what we have because we know that we are blessed and can “do all things through him who strengthens us.”

*La especia Arriba Su Verano!

Please come to the annual summer kick-off in the Prince of Peace Fellowship Area.

Saturday, June 13, at 6:30 PM

This year's festivity is once again being sponsored by the New Members Ministry Team. You're all invited to this fun-filled event following Saturday's 5:30 PM evening worship service.

The menu includes a salad bar, featuring taco salad. There'll be plenty of food and fun for everyone. So...COME! JOIN US!

Have dinner, play some games, or just relax and visit. This will be a great time to meet new friends and become reacquainted with others. Be sure to bring along your friends and relatives.

To ensure we have enough food for everyone, we will be asking you to sign up on the yellow worship slip found in the Sunday bulletin. Be sure to include the number of people in your party.

If you'd like to offer your assistance in setting up, serving, and/or cleaning up afterwards, please mark the yellow worship slip or call Sandy Steele at 546-0439.

We look forward to seeing you all there.

*DISCLAIMER: The editor of the Preview does not speak Spanish, so if the free translation online massacred the phrase, "spice up your summer," please accept my apologies! DS

Lutheran World Relief

The RLC Sewing Bee delivered quilts and lap robes to the following local agencies on May 11. Large quilts: American Red Cross - 6; Tri-City Union Gospel Mission - 7; Veterans Hospital - 7; Lap robes: The American Red Cross (for children)- 5; Quail Hollow - 6; Cancer Center - 6. We are thankful to all the ladies who help make these items and for all the donations of fabric, yarn, and old blankets that make it possible for us to take part in this ministry. We also sent 18 quilts to Lutheran World Relief this spring. We encourage more of you to come join us in this special and satisfying ministry. We also could use people to sew quilt tops at home. We really have a great time! We meet most every Wednesday from 9 AM until noon. Contact Lois Harrold (946-0923) for more information.

Antiques and Collectibles Sale for GNMM

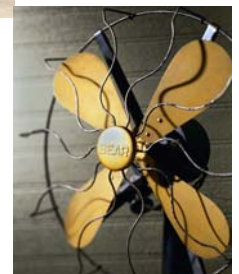

The Good News Media Ministry (GNMM) Antiques and Collectibles sale will be held Friday, June 26, and Saturday, June 27, 8:00 AM to 1:00 PM in the Prince of Peace fellowship area.

If you have antique, retro (50's and 60's) or collectible items you would like to donate, please bring them to the church the week of the sale, Monday through Thursday, June 22-25. Proceeds from the sale support our TV ministry, Good News Today.

Thank You!

New 12 Step Study Starting

The 12-STEP RECOVERY GROWTH GROUP has completed their first study. A NEW series will begin Monday, June 15, at 5:30-6:30 PM in the Friendship Room. The purpose is to discover the "12-steps" through biblical teachings and to further our recovery as we turn our life over to the care of Jesus Christ as our true "higher power." Anonymity and confidentiality is emphasized.

This is a supplement to 12-step recovery programs such as AA, Alanon, NA and should not be used as a replacement for recovery meetings and sponsorship. The facilitator is a member who has many years of "recovery".

Basic Belief Seminar

HOW DO I JOIN RICHLAND LUTHERAN CHURCH? If you are a confirmed member of another Lutheran church and would like to transfer your membership, contact the church office (943-3164) or use the yellow worship slip in your bulletin. If you are not a confirmed Lutheran, a one-day BASIC BELIEF SEMINAR will be held on Saturday, June 20, 8:30 AM to 5 PM. This will cover the basics of Lutheran teaching to prepare you for membership, though attending the seminar in no way obligates you to join. Please R. S. V. P. to the church office by calling 943-3164, e-mailing sue.kramer@richlandlutheran.org, or sign up on the yellow worship slip in your bulletin. New members will be received at the 11 AM service on Sunday, July 19.

Children in Church

Editor's Note: It isn't often we have space in the Preview for things that fall into a just-for-fun category. Luckily for your funny bone, we have space this month! Thanks Sharon Wunschel for passing these on.

- ☺ A little boy was in a relative's wedding. As he was coming down the aisle, he would take two steps, stop, and turn to the crowd. While facing the crowd, he would put his hands up like claws and roar. So it went, step, step, ROAR, step, step, ROAR, all the way down the aisle. As you can imagine, the crowd was near tears from laughing so hard by the time he reached the pulpit. When asked what he was doing, the child sniffed and said, "I was the ring bear."
- ☺ My grandson was visiting one day when he asked, "Grandma, do you know how you and God are alike?" I mentally polished my halo, while I asked, "No, how are we alike?" "You're both old," he replied.
- ☺ One particular four-year old prayed, "And forgive us our trash baskets as we forgive those who put trash in our baskets."
- ☺ A Sunday school class was studying the Ten Commandments. They were ready to discuss the last one. The teacher asked if anyone could tell her what it was. Susie raised her hand, stood tall, and quoted, "Thou shall not take the covers off the neighbor's wife."
- ☺ A little boy was overheard praying: "Lord, if you can't make me a better boy, don't worry about it. I'm having a real good time like I am."
- ☺ A Sunday school teacher asked her little children, as they were on the way to the church service, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One bright little girl replied, "Because people are sleeping."

Save the Date

There will be a special congregational meeting on Sunday, June 28 (time yet to be determined). The main agenda item is election of a call committee for associate pastor. Please make a note of this on your calendar and watch for more details soon.

New Worship Opportunities

During the summer, we will have two additional worship opportunities you may want to take advantage of!

Thursday evenings at 7:00 PM we will have an informal Communion service in the Prince of Peace fellowship area. The service will be fairly simple and will be ideal for people planning to go out of town for the weekend. The services will begin June 18.

Sunday evenings at 5:00 PM we will have an informal Communion service in the chapel. Geared for families with small children, the service will be very simple, and we will have more of an interactive sermon that will begin with a children's object lesson and expand into a discussion. There will be no stretches where children need to "sit still and listen." The services will begin on June 21.

Council Statement

In August, the ELCA Churchwide Assembly will vote on recommendations that commit our denomination to finding ways to allow congregations to recognize "life-long, monogamous, same-gender relationships" and allow persons in such relationships "to serve as rostered leaders of this church." These recommendations will require a simple majority to pass. At its most recent assembly, the Eastern Washington/Idaho Synod memorialized the Churchwide Assembly to adopt these proposals.

In response, the Richland Lutheran Congregation Council:

- affirms the traditional understanding of marriage as being a committed relationship between a man and a woman (Genesis 2:24-25; Matthew 19:4-6; and Mark 10:2-9);
- affirms the current moral standards for clergy and other rostered leaders expressed in the present "Visions and Expectations" documents; and
- affirms the Lutheran principle that official teaching must be based on Scripture alone, which is the "authoritative source and norm of our proclamation, faith, and life."
